Dear Sir;

In regard to your inquiry about James Reuben and William Howe, I will give you all the information that I have available.

Their father was named Winslow Howe and as I remember he had four sons and two daughters. I have no information about the daughters. His sons names were James Reuben, William, Horace and another one that my father said went to the Black Hills at the time of the gold discovery and was never heard from again.

My father, William, had four children, one girl and three boys. Their names were Henry, Charles, Alice and James E. They are all dead but me.

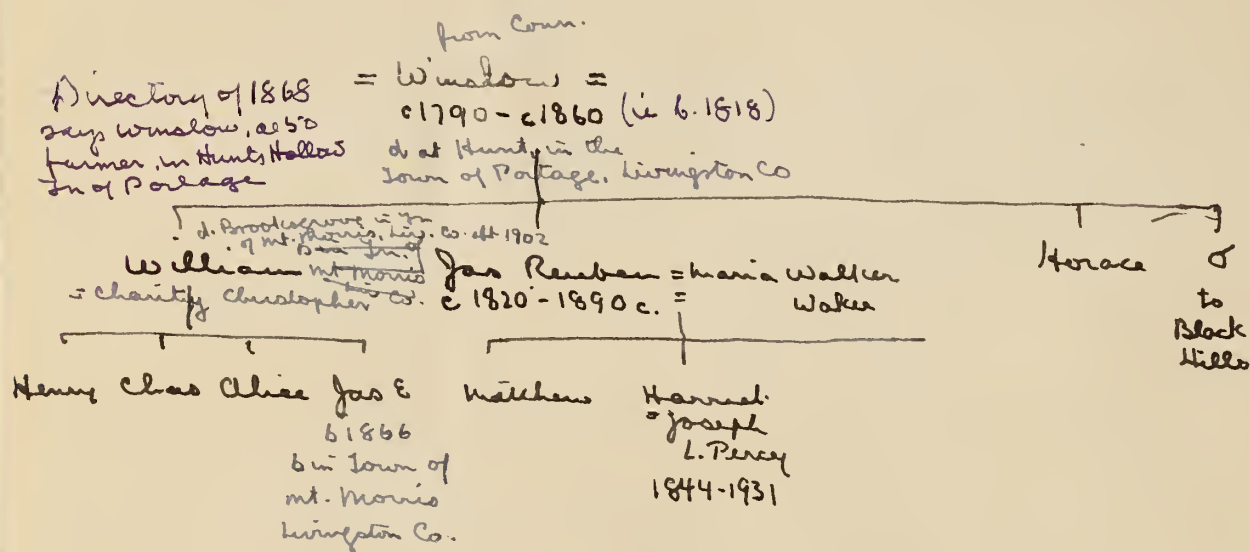

My grandfather Winslow Howe I think originally came from Connecticut

I have often wondered if our ancestors were English or what nationality.

That is about all the information I have at this time of our family history.

I would like to hear from you again and in the meantime I shall make some further inquiries.

Respectfully yours,
James E. Howe

Mr. Andrews,
Brighton, Ont.

Dear Sir:-

My friend Mr. Freeman states that you are his neighbor and friend. He also knows of my desire to question you regarding a branch of my family which were related to the Andrews family. In order to make the query plain and answerable, I shall ask a few questions trusting that you will be able to answer them with very little trouble. Your assistance will be greatly appreciated.

My grandmother's grandmother married a man by the name of Howe. He died, and she then married a Mr. Andrews. About 1850 or 1860 Mr. Andrews and wife, with two or three sons (by her first marriage) and her daughter, the wife of Lewis Vanluven removed from the Kingston district to Fenelon Falls. We have no further record of them.

Did you ever hear of such a story?

- (1) Our name is spelled ANDRUS.
- (2) None of our generation was as far east as Kingston district.
- (3)

If you know of other Andrews, Howes or Vanluvens who might belong to this family, could you supply names and addresses?

- (1) A John Howe lives in Trenton, Ontario, and there is a Dr. Vanluven in Concession, Ontario, Prince Edward County.

If there is any further information I can give, I will be glad to give it. Anson Andrus, Brighton.
% Ray Freeman

To save yourself the trouble of answering on separate paper you could use the spaces above and return this sheet to me. At the same time I wish to express my appreciation of your co-operation. Keep your eye on Freeman and see that he acts neighborly.

Yours sincerely H. C. Burleigh

Dear Sir:

Some months ago Mr. Michael Lehane of your town was asking you some questions for me. It was concerning the Howe family, of which I am a descendant. My grandmother was Harriet Howe, daughter of James Howe.

It has long been known that James Howe's mother married a second husband, a Mr. Andrews, and with him and several of her children by her first husband went to Fenelon Falls or vicinity many years ago

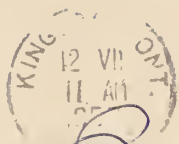

It is my desire to obtain more information about the family, and for this reason I am enclosing a list of questions. Would you very kindly try to answer them. I shall be eternally grateful to you for your help. I am enclosing a stamped envelope for return.

Dear Mother

Your letter received and those questions
you ask me I am afraid will not help you very much - as I do not know about any of my father's or mother's people when I was 2 years old they came over to Fair Haven. I think it was Anna
or a place called Bell rock. Mother was in Fair Haven at that time

2
My Mother died
Soon after he got to Fair Haven. he married
Mr. Mathews ^{sister} ^{was} married Pomeroy Cove over. from I think Leicester Kingston Ont.
She had a Boy when she came over. and other children that I never saw. My father moved from Farm H - to Manda Livingston Co. N.Y. and lived there until he died & was married there. that is the last I ever saw them. My step brother and his mother did not tell me when father died.

3/

don't think my father ever lived any place in Canada
only Vermont - or Bell Rock. think my mother's sister married a man by the name of Snyder - that lived in Fair H - Remember a Uncle
Wilse Walker that lived around Kingston.
Brother - Matthew came over first and he said they all came to Fair H - Harriet and Joe Percy moved back to Canada.
Soon after my mother died -

I do hope you can make something out of this scribbling as I can't. I know so little about all of these. About all of my sisters only Sarah was married when I was born I lived with Sarah and Brother Matthew. if there should be something more I hear about I will let you know. My son lives in Buffalo and my two girls live here in Hayts, C. I glad you are getting along so well and don't forget if you should ever come out this far we will welcome you more than happy to see you. do hope this will help you some

Love your Aunt Edith still have the other dates in my last letter perhaps you can figure it out we are both old & forgetful so this is the best we can do hoping these answers may help you out.

Yours very Respectfully

P.S.
She has no family Bible & dont know where you could find one

Mrs. S. G. Williams,

Cape Vincent, N. Y.

Dear Mrs. Williams:

SURPRISE!!!!

Dare I apologise for not sending you the Booth marriages before this late date? I confess that too many things stand in my way, and too many letters remain unanswered. Let these Booth items be a peace offering.

I had it in my mind to get a letter off to you, but it was only when I was looking through the papers of the Central N. Y. Gen. Society that I received the urge to write this. I also came up with a suspicion that I had not renewed my subscription when I discovered that red slip in the papers. Yesterday I got a letter off to the Secretary, and I hope to be in good standing ere long.

I am also enclosing notes on one of my perennial genealogical problems. I thought that, after scanning it, you might advise me on the approach to the problem, or, better still, that you might undertake some investigation for me, for a fee, of course. Please look it over, and give me your thinking on the matter.

Howe Family, p. I (red) This is the Howe Family Tree, as worked out, considering George, son of William I, as father of James Reuben, my greatgrandfather. The dates underlined in red are proven. A very old lady many years ago threw a monkey-wrench into this perfectly straightforward lineage by stating that James Reuben was a Rice, not a Howe. My grandmother disagreed with this, why I do not know.

Suspecting that the old lady was right, I recently reviewed a Rice family (see page III (red)), and my suspicions have been heightened by the repetition of the given names, Elisha and Reuben, as you can readily see. Furthermore, you will note that a number of the Rice children came to N. Y. by way of Vermont. Rice is also a relatively common name in Jefferson County, according to my copy Jefferson County Centennial, 1905.

I have added on page II (red) the family of a William Howe of Livingston County, which may, or may not, belong to my Howes. In my searches of 25 years ago, I discovered this family in the Munda area, and I wrote to James E., receiving in reply the details here recounted. You will note in Howe Family I (red) that James Reuben removed to Munda to be near his brother, William. You will also note that William, son of Winslow, (page II) was of Mount Morris. This makes me wonder in there were not two William Howes--one of Munda and the other of Mount Morris.

I hope that you can advise me, and that you will receive some benefit from the Booth items.

Yours sincerely,

Peter = Howard.

The schoolhouse stood on the brow of a steep declivity. Behind it a high picket fence stood etched against the faint glow in the west. An upturned rail rested at a rakish angle on one of the pickings. All was peaceful. The wind had subsided with the setting sun. ^{There was} no sound but came a gentle rustling at a point where time & childish persistence had removed a board from the fence. There the upturned rail seemed to assume a more rakish angle as much as to say who comes there.

The picket fence behind the school at Peniston showed signs of wear and tear. Here and there a ^{picket} picket was missing. Yonder a battered rail ~~was~~ seated upturned over a post at a most rakish angle.

The globe in the rear window of the school at Peniston faced the last western glow. Below it was the picket fence that stood at the edge of a steep ^{declivity} promontory which ended at Liberty street far below. Beyond the street was the rugged brow of pore. hill.

Just now the globe seemed to cock an ear to a conversation ^{regarding} from the vicinity of the fence immediately below.
